

Criteria for Video Submissions

- There are two categories, an “emerging” and “advanced”
  - Emerging category is for ages 17 and under
  - Advanced category is for ages 18 and over
- Both categories need to have the qualifying criteria that is listed in chart 1
- The advanced category will be judged on the criteria that is listed in chart 2
- The emerging category will be judged on the criteria that is listed in chart 3

Chart 1 – All Submissions

Criteria needed to qualify	✓
Intergenerational relationships present (at least one person over 55 and one person under 40) filmmaker and subject counts.
Video is between 3-5 minutes
Video pertains to the topic: An intergenerational response to COVID-19: Hopes for our post-pandemic world
Format: export files as an h.264 mp4
People are asked to follow the advice of our health care professionals and The BC Centre for Disease Control to practice safe social distancing while creating their videos. This includes taking the necessary measures of using a mask, washing hands often, and keeping a two-metre distance from others.

Chart 2 – Advanced Category

Judging criteria for advanced category (ages 18 and over)	Score from 1-5 (5 being best)
The video shows hope
Messaging/storytelling - is the message of the film clear?
Storytelling - structure, emotional impact, how well it was executed
Production value – lighting, audio, technological elements

Chart 3 – Emerging Category

Judging criteria for emerging category (ages 17 and under)	Score from 1-5 (5 being best)
The video shows hope
Messaging/storytelling - is the message of the film clear?
Storytelling - structure, emotional impact, how well it was executed	